During the entire time from the arrival of the remains to the burial the escort will be composed of equal numbers of Federal and ex-Confederate numbers of Federal and ex-Conlederate soldiers.

The ex-Confederates of the city held a meeting yesterday at Veteran Company A's headquarters and made all necessary preparations for the funeral. Major Maxwell Minter presided at the meeting, Major Elake L. Woodson, who was just back from the Shelby home, reported that the family had agreed to the burisl at this place and stated the time the body would arrive. The following palibearers were selected: Jumes Bannerman, of St. Louis; Henry A. Newman, of Randoiph county; Captain M. M. Langhorne, of Independence; V. H. Davis, of Westport; Alexander Adams, of this city; Captain W. H. Woodson, of Liberty; Perry Catron, of Mest Plains, and Colorol John T. Crisp, of Independence.

The remains will be followed to the United States court room, where the following delegation of soldiers will receive them and remain on duty as a guard of honor:

Ex-Confederates—Captain W. H. Gregg, J. F. McCormick, Charles McBirde, C. G. Crotty, J. A. McBonald, W. H. Buzzell and C. A. Lewis. Company A—Lieutemant G. W. Landis, J. O. Lockhart, Press Woodmansee, George Cushman, M. Cunningham and John Sutherland.

It was arranged yesterday that Company A was to furnish the band for the funeral and the squad to fire the salure. Major Maxwell Minter was chosen to take charge of the military features of the funeral and will conduct it. Colonel Ed Haren and Robert Cunningham were chosen aldes. The Thirâ regiment in full uniform has been asked to escort the funeral party in the city, and all of the civic and military organizations in the city and all of the povernment, state, county and city officers have been invited to join in the procession and take part in the funeral. All of the government, state, county and city officers have been invited to attend the funeral in a body. All such delegations intending to attend will report to Major Minter at Company A beadquarters at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning for assignment in place. All of the City, county and neighboring country will be present, and a delegation from Sheiby's brigade will also be in altendance. The members of the various G. A. R. posts, soldiers and cityens, who may attend the funeral are asked to meet at Company A headquarters wednesday morning to march to the custom house to receive the body and escort it to the church.

Major Marwell Minter, Captain H. J. Taylor and Captain C. C. Colt were chosen to go to Forest Hill to choose the lot for the burial. The directors have offered the family choice of lots facing the ex-Confederate plot. In this way there will be room for other members of the family, and still the general will lie in death near those who lost their lives following his leadership during the war.

It was intenden to have the funeral Tuesday afternoon, but owing to the sickness of Mrs. Shelby it was postponed for a day in the hope that she may recover so as to stend. Miss Juna Shelby is just recovering from the measies and her physician has said it would be exceedingly hamrdous for her to venture out, and she willnotbe abit to attend.

There will be a meeting of the ex-Con-

GAMBLERS ARE JUBILANT. Rejoice Exceedingly of the Success in Dealing how Missouri Legalston.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 14.-(Special.) The probable knocking out of the bill prepared by the Horse Breeders' Association of Missouri, to put a stop to pool selling except upon race tracks from April 15 until November 1, and making night and winter racing illegal, is believed to be due to the influence of certain visitors to this city during the past week. Among these visitors were Charles Oldham, of the Biller & Oldham gambling firm of Kansas City, and a number of St. Louis gamblers. Prior to diciary committee were said to be almost ananimous in favor of the bill. But subsesnahimous in favor of the bill. But subsequently a change came over them.

While these men were in the city Joe Shannon, the Kansas City Democratic boss, made his appearance. He indignantly denied that he was in any way mixed up in gambling in Kansas City or eisewhere, and declared that he had no interest in the house breeders' bill. He gave out the impression that he was in the city to attend the sessions of the supreme court.

Whatever the influence, the horse breeders' anti-pool room bill seems to have received a death blow, and the gamblers in Kansas City and St. Louis, who are interested in pool rooms, are breathing freer than they did a week ago. Naturally, the members of the Horse Breeders' Association are disgusted. They have lost feith in the Missouri house of representatives.

WILSON FAVORS ASQUITH.

A Clash Between Cabinet Officers Is Holding Up the St. Joseph Postmastership.

Washington, Feb. 14.-(Special.) The St. Jeseph postoffice bids fair to go by default until the next administration, unless Post-Atkinson's commission expired January 17, since which time the nomination of a Democrat has been daily expected. The delay is caused by a reported clash between Postmaster General Wilson and Secretary Francis. It is understood that the postmaster general wants to appoint his old friend and army comrade, Asquith. Some one, in conversation with Secretary Francis, happened to mention Asquith's presence in the city and the probability of his appointment. It seems that Francis indorsed Steve Woodson. When he heard that Woodson was in danger of getting left through Wilson's regard for his old boyhood friend, he threw down a bundle of papers on his desk, and waxed vehement. "Til see about that," he exclaimed. "I think I ought to know more about Missouri politics than anybody from West Virginia." And Asquith was not appointed. At least he is not yet appointed—nor Woodson, either, for that matter. The impression prevails that there was a mild sort of a collision between the two cabinet chiefs as to whose name shall be sent to the senate. Atkinson's commission expired January 17

THE STOCK YARDS INQUIRY.

An Impression Abroad That the Missourians Are Expected to Curb the Kansans.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 14.-(Special.) The special committee of the house ap-pointed to investigate the charges of ex-tortion at the stock yards in Missouri will tortion at the stock yards in Missouri will be in Kansas City to-morrow morning. Representative Whitecotton is chairman of the committee and Colonel John T. Crisp is a member of it. The latter says that if any extortion is proved ne will introduce a measure in the house remedying it. It is expected that the members of the Kansas committee will consent to go to the Live Stock exchange to hold the joint meetings. There is an impression in this city and in other plats of the state that the aim souri committee is the creation of the Kansas City Stock Yards Company, and that it is expected to act as a check upon the Kansas committee in preventing the accomplishment of proposed reductions in feed and yardage charges at the Kansas City stock yards, which lie almost entirely in the state of Kansas.

A 10 PER CENT CUT IN WAGES. Collapse of the Rail Pool Disastrously

Affects 3,000 Pennsylvania Steel Workers. Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 14.-Notice of a 1 per cent reduction was posted at the works of the Pennsylvania Steel Company yester-day, to take effect on March 1. The reducday, to take effect on March 1. The reduc-tion affects about 3,000 employes. Presi-dent Feiton said that he hoped the condi-tions would soon improve so as to warrant a restoration of the old wages. The reduc-tion is one of the results of the collapse of the steel rail pool.

NEWSPAPER BURNED OUT. Pittsburg Post Establishment Destroyed by Fire Yesterday Morning-Well Insured. Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 14.—The office of the Post, on Fifth avenue, was almost totally destroyed by fire this morning, causing a loss to the paper of about $0,000, well indestroyed by fire this morning, causing a loss to the paper of about $0,000, well insured. The loss on the building is $5,000; well insured. The only other tenant in the building was Gleason, the railroad ticket broker, whose loss was small. The Commercial-Gazette, next door to the Post, was in imminent danger, but good work by the fire department saved that plant, the only damage being caused by water which flooded the cellar. The Commercial-Gazette presses and engines are thus, for the time being, disabled. The paper's edition tomorrow morning will be printed at the Press, office. Both the Post and Commercial were promptly tendered the use of machines, presses and the offices of the Othernewspapers in the city. The Post will be issued from the office of the Leader until a new plant can be established. The cause of the fire is not known. It broke out about 8 o'clock and had made a flue of the freight elevator shaft, getting under big headway before the watchman discovered it. It is supposed that electric wires are responsible for the conflagration. The flames shot up the elevator shaft from the first floor, and in a very short time had communicated to the entire building, which was soon beyond hope of being saved. On the fourth floor was the composing room, where the linotype machines were all so badly damaged that they will have to be rebuilt. Type and other material were also a complete loss. type machines were all so badly damaged that they will have to be rebuilt. Type and other material were also a complete loss. In the editorial rooms, on the third floor, the complete files of the papers were destroyed and everything in the room drenched with water or consumed by the large safe broke through the floor and crashed down upon one of the presses, which was immediately under it in the basement. What damage the safe and press have sustained cannot be known before to-morrow.

BRILLIANCY OF FORMER OCCASIONS TO BE OUTDONE.

ABOUT THE INAUGURAL BALL

PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT WILL ATTEND.

Decorations to Be on a Magnificent Scale-No Invitations Necessary-Series of Five Innugural Concerts-The Parade to Be Large.

Washington, Feb. 14.-The arrangements for the inauguration of President-elect Mc-Kinley two weeks from next Thursday are rapidly nearing completion, and the indicaions are that, in point of brilliancy and attractiveness, the ceremonies, the decorations and the festivities incident to inauguration week will be more lavish than those of former years.

In the decorations of the ball room, finer results are expected than ever before. All spectacular effects will be avoided and a more artistic and harmonious arrangement of flowers, lights and bunting will be secured. About $13,000 will be spent by the inaugural committee in decorating the main ballroom and the private rooms set apart for the use of the presidential and vice presidential parties. The great height of the court of the pension building, where the ball will be held, will be overcome by bunting festooned from the center of each of the three divisions of the court to the top of the second gallery. The bare walls everywhere and all of the & laller pillars will be covered with bunting as a back-ground for the flowers and greens which will be the prominent features of the decorations. The bunting and thousands of tiny electric fairy lamps will be used principally to bring out in greater relief the The president and vice president, with their familier will attend the ball and will be in charge of a reception committee, of which Major General Nelson A. Miles is chairman.

No Invitation Necessary.

The cost of tickets to the ball has been fixed at $5 for each person and $1 extra if supper is desired. In answer to many inquiries received at headquarters, it may be stated no invitations to the ball are necessary to secure tickets, and none are is-sued except to foreign ministers. Tickets are now on sale, and may be had by any one at the price named.

The promenade concert will consist of six elections, and the dance programme contains twenty-three numbers. The ball will be held on Thursday night, and, in addibe given in the ballroom on the following will remain in place. The first concert will be given at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, in honor of the United States army, repre-sented by General Muca and staff. At this concert the Republican Glos Club, of Columbus, O., will sing a number of patriotic airs. At 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon a concert will be given in honor of the Unit-ed States navy, represented by Rear Adthe concert will be given in honor of the states of the Union, represented by the governors of the states and their staffs. The concert Saturday afternoon will be in honor of congress, represented by the presdent of the senate and the speaker of the house. The last concert, Saturday night, will be in honor of the people of the United States, and will consist of music by the rus of 500 voices. Admission to each con-Parade Will Be Large. Notwithstanding the fact the Pennsylania national guard finds it impossible to attend the inauguration, the probabilities are that the parade will be very large General Horace Porter, of New York, with the members of his staff, is busy with the the members of his staff, is busy with the details of arranging the divisions. General Porter will act as grand marshal, and will have as his chief-of-staff, Mr. Noel Blakeman, of New York city; Colonel H. C. Corbin, of the U. S. A., as adjutant general, and Captain John A. Johnston, U. S. A., as chief aides with Captain William Edward Horton, of the D. C. N. G., special aide and military secretary.

The parade will be organized in two grand divisions, one civic and the other military. General Grenville M. Dodge will be chief marshal of the first grand divisions. He will have as his chief-of-staff General Huidekoper, of New York, and Colonel Joseph P. Sanger, of the U. S. A., adjutant general. This military grand division will be subdivided into three separate divisions. The first division will be organized into two brigades, the first comprising United States troops, as well as the next his staff of the staff of t rate divisions. The first division will be organized into two brigades, the first comprising United States troops, as well as the naval battalions. This first brigade will be commanded by Major General Wesley Merritt, of the United States army. The second brigade will be composed of the national guard of the District of Columbia, 1,500 strong, and the Washington high school cadeta, 400 strong, all under the command of General Cecil Clay, of the District of Columbia national guard. The second division of the military grand division will be composed of the national guards of the various states, headed respectively by the governor and staff of each state, and arranged in order from front to rear in the order in which the states entered the Union. The third division of the military grand division will be composed of all the veteran organizations, including the G. A. R., the Loyal Legion, the Medal of Honor Legion, the Union Veterans' Union, the Union Veterans' Union, the Union Veteran Legion, the Regular Army and Navy Union. etc. This third division will be commanded by General O. Civic Grand Division.

Civic Grand Division.

Civic Grand Division.

The civic grand division will be commanded by Mr. B. H. Warner, of this city, as chief marshal, and will be made up of civic clubs of all descriptions. Prominent in this grand division will be the Republican National League, of which Mr. D. D. Woodmansee, of Cincinnati, its president, will act as marshal. It is estimated that there will be from 40,000 to 50,000 people in the parade, and in order to move so vast an army in the space of time allowed they will be so formed that they can be marched past a given point at the rate of 12,000 an hour. Conspicuous among the civic organizations will be the delegation of about 200 students from the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa. Governor Bushnell of Ohlo, will command a military division. The United States regular troops of the military grand division will be composed of one battalion of engineers from Willett's Point, N. Y.; two regiments of infantry, the Seventeenth. from Columbus barracks, and the Ninth, from Sackett's harbor; one regiment of cavalry, four troops from Fort Meyer and four from Fort Bahan Allen, twelve batteries of heavy artillery, marching as infantry, and two light batteries. The national guard of the states will be represented in the parade by several regiments and independent commands. A large number of separate companies also are expected to be present.

MAJOR M'KINLEY NEEDS REST. Will Leave Canton This Week to Escape the Army of Hungry

Officescekers.

Canton, O., Feb. 14.-It is not definitely known whether President-elect McKinley will start for Cleveland in the morning or delay his visit to that city for a day or two. But it is apparent to his friends that he should take a rest and seek retirement from the strain of receiving the army of visitors constantly besieging his home. He has held up remarkably well under the heavy task that has been placed upon him since the election and always gave the visitor free and hearty welcome. But his friends are importuning him to seek relief and rest, and it is understood that he will be away from his Canton home for at least a part of the time this week. Definite The past week has been a remarkable one for visitors. The modest little home has been almost constantly crowded from has been almost constantly crowded from early morning until late at night every day during the week, and there was scarcely a time the major could seek rest without leaving a room full of men waiting for an audience. The visitors came from all sections of the country, and their missions covered every topic which could possibly be referred to a president-elect. Some called to urge cabinet claims and the more important parts of the diplomatic service.

Some came to offer advice or seek assist-tuce in matters of legislation. But the majority came in quest of the smaller al-ofments of patronage, ranging from post-lotments of patronage, ranging from post-masterships upward.

To-day the major received scarcely any visitors. He has always been averse to at-tending to business matters on Sunday, and at no time during all of the busy cam-paign were the Sundays to any considerable extent given over to political consultations or political work by the major's household. Congressman D. K. Watson, of Colum-bus, and C. A. Chickering, of New York, who were late callers last night, accepted an invitation to accompany the major to church this morning, and the First Pres-tylerian services were attended. Beside this, the major left the house for a call on his mother and a drive with Mrs. McKin-ley. The remainder of the day was spent at the house with Mrs. McKin-at the house reading.

Jerome Carty, of Philadelphia, was a late caller Saturday night. He is deeply interested in the candidacy of General J. H. Weldensham for commissioner of pensions. Mr. Carty is a prominent attorney.

CLEVELAND TO SELL WOODLEY Means That He Has No Further Designs on the Presidency-His Wealth.

Washington, Feb. 14.—President Cleve-land has placed his country residence, "Woodley," in the hands of a real estate agent for sale, and it is said he has no in-tention of spending portions of each win-ter season here. To the politician it sig-nifies also that he has no lurking designs nifies also that he has no lurking designs on the presidency four years hence.

As real estate has made little advance in the last few years it is unlikely that Mr. Cleveland will realize much more from the sale of Woodley than he gave for it. His former purchase of the country residence netted him about $100,000, and gave the neighborhood a boom that resulted in most of the land being quickly disposed of at high profits to the owners. With a home in New York city, assumer at Princeton and a summer residence on Buzzard's Bay, a New York City, also at 17the-ton and a summer residence on Buzzard's Bay, Mr. Cleveland will be well provided.
Mr. Cleveland will be well provided.
Mr. Cleveland's fortune has been variously estimated, but those who have made the most conservative figuring place it at not more than $1,000,000. His three homes, it is claimed, represent at least $200,000 and it is claimed, represent at least $200,000 and he has other property which will bring his real estate holdings up to $500,000. During his eight years in the White House the president has drawn from the government in salaries $400,000, of which amount he is supposed to have saved one-half. Added to this have been large fees secured during the four years he was out of office, his profits in real estate and probably $20,000 he had accumulated before becoming president.

SOPHONISBA'S FIRST CASE.

Col. Breekinridge's Lawyer Daughter Files Model Papers in a Divorce Case.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 14.—(Special.) Miss Sophonisha Breckinridge, Kentucky's first woman lawyer, filed her first suit in the yette circuit court yesterday. She rep-husband, Charles Swigert, for absolute vorce.

Miss Breckinridge is an accomplish typewriter, and the petition is an excelle specimen of her work. It is short, and the same time sets forth all the charges cruelty and inhuman treatment, asks it the custody of the plaintiff's infant daug ter and youngest son, and sets forth teasè far more tersely than many of i lawyers of the opposite sex could do. Tpapers were tied with a neat blue saribbon, and they have been carefully examined by every member of the Lexingt bar.

It is conceded by all of them that Miss Breckinridge's first petition is one of the neatest and clearest court papers filed here for a long time. It is said that she has an excellent case, and will no doubt win her first suit at law.

She modestly declined to discuss the case and asked that the papers make no special mention of it. She said it was simply a plain divorce case and that was all.

KANSAN MAY BE HONORED.

Professor C. C. Georgeson Is Being Talked Of for Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

Washington, Feb. H.—(Special.) While the prevailing opinion is that J. H. Brig-ham, of Ohio, will be selected as assistant the prevailing opinion is that J. H. Brigham, of Ohio, will be selected as assistant secretary of agriculture, some of the Kansas members at the house have hopes that C. C. Georgeson, of their state, will be appointed. While the office is filled by the president, it is the custom to consult the secretary as to his preference before making the nomination, and Professor Georgeson has been strongly urged as one peculiarly fitted for the place. He is professor of agriculture at the Kansas Agricultural college at Manhattan.

He is a Dane by nativity, and was educated at the Michigan Agricultural college. He was for several years engaged in agricultural work in Japan, going from there to the Kansas Agricultural college. A few years ago he was sent to Denmark by Secretary Rusk to investigate the dairy industry in that country. His name has been brought to the attention of the president-elect as well as the prospective secretary of agriculture, ex-Congressman Wilson, of Iowa.

VALENTINES OUT OF DATE.

Modern Maidens Prefer Bicycle Lami or Cyclometers to Simpering Verses.

Chicago, Feb. it.—This is St. Valentine's day, but much of the celebration of it be gan yesterday. Evidences of the season were to be discovered at the postoffice The postman was the busiest person in town. The number of valentines was not as great as in former years, perhaps 30 as great as in former years, perhaps 30 per cent less.

The number of fine boxes and large packages which indicate the sending of expensive valentines has more than been cut in half. Postoffice officials ascribe the absence of the expensive kinds to the bicycle. They say the maidens of to-day prefer a silver-plated bicycle i mp, a nice cyclometer, or other devices for the wheel to the simpering verses and multicolored hearts and thatched cottages that adorn the missives of the love saint.

In the residence districts the mail was heaviest. In some instances carriers who should get back from their first trip at 3 o'clock did not return till after noon.

FIVE INCHES ON THE GROUND.

STORM IS GENERAL OVER BOTH KANSAS AND MISSOURI.

Neither Railway Nor Street Car Traf. to Has Been Impeded, However, and the Fall Will Please the Farmers Immensely.

A heavy snow storm settled down on Kansas City yesterday. The flakes began falling sometime before noon, and kept it up away into the night. They were as fine as flour at first, and sifted down before a ousy south wind. Gradually they inreased in size until they were as large as an ordinary thumbnail. It was a wet snow, and lay where it fell. By 8 o'clock last night 5.8 inches had fallen. The streets were packed solidly, the snow welding into heavy mass.

It was the heaviest snow storm of the eason. Also, it was the most industrious, When the snow first began falling it came in a torrent. As the flakes grew larger reminder at the start of the storm that vis-ited Kansas City three years ago, and a great many people thought the elements were preparing to duplicate its record-breaker of that year.

Except for the fast time made by the snow in reaching the sarth, it was but an ordinary winter-day demonstration. St. Valentine seems to have been the most werried about it. The fact that the clerk of the weather bureau had reserved a swirling snow storm for his annual visit The fall of snow seemed to have little effect on railroad traffic. All the trains ar-rived and departed on schedule time last light, notwithstanding that the tracks in in some places the Santa Fe tracks were hidden by nine inches of snow. In the northern part of the state of Kansas the fall was much lighter. The storm seems to have gathered force out in the Rocky mountains, probably around Pike's peak, and started on its eastward tour, followne the old Santa Fe trail. Traveling acrthward on the south wind, it may have lost some of its force.

Here in Kansas City the storm had little ill effect. Prebably the overshadowing calamity was the forced suspension of traffic on the Broadway mule car line. The occasional one or two patrons of this line were forced to wade home through the or resort to carriages. After snow had fallen an hour or so another mule was added to each of the two cars on this line, giving each car a motive power of three mules. For a while the patient animals floundered through the snow, but finally, after the cars had several times left the ralls, they were relugtantly com-

The Metropolitan Street Railway Com pany is always prepared for just such a torm as that of yesterday and the snor had just gotten a fair start when sweepers had just gotten a fair start when sweepers were sent over the lines. A big force of men was put to work at the curves keeping the track clear and traffic was very slightly linpeded. The West Side line in Kansas City, Kas., lost a car on Fansas avenue and the line was tied up for about three hours. The car leaped the track at the Packard avenue crossing, because the snow was welded almost as solid as iron between the retaining rails and the track.

One of the prettiest effects of the storm was the way in which it draped the leafless branches of the trees. The moisture in the flakes caused them to stick where they fell and it was not iong before the trees all looked as though they had been carved out of some monster drift by a careful workman with an eye to scenic effect.

trees all looked as though they had been carved out of some monster drift by a careful workman with an eye to scenic effect.

To-day, with a little sunshine—it is not promised—the streets are in a fair way to become unsightly rivers of mud. Walter Davis and his white wings brigade will have their hands full.

Chief of Police Julian last night notified the captains and lieutenants in charge of the four police precincts that the patrolmen must be notified at roll call this morning to see to it that the snow order is strictly enforced. Each patrolman will request the property owners on his beat to have their sidewalks cleaned off. If the order is not obeyed arrest will follow.

HONORS FOR A DEAD SINGER.

Remarkable Demonstration at the Funeral of "Castelmary" in New York Yesterday.

York, Feb. 14.-Probably no person connected with the theatrical or operati profession had such a tribute paid to his nemory in this city as was displayed this afternoon at the funeral services over the body of Count Armand de Casten, known as Castelmary, the opera singer who died as Castelmary, the opera singer who died at the Metropolitan opera house on Wed-nesday night while singing in "Martha." The crowd that collected in and around the French church of St. Vincent de Paul on West Twenty-third street was so large that the forty policemen on duty there could hardly control it. More than 2,000 persons were in the church, and many women swooned. All the members of the Metropolitan opera company were present. women swooned. All the members of the Metropolitan opera company were present, and M. Plancon, Mme. Litvinno and Violinist Hasselbrink participated in the elaborate musical programme. The floral tributes were profuse and came from all the stars of the company and many who knew not the dead man, but who had applauded him at the opera. The body was buried in Mount Kisco cemetery.

GREEKS EVIDENTLY INTEND TO CHECK POSSIBLE INVASION.

Greeian Government Notifies the Ambussedors of the Powers That It Knows What It Is Doing and Accepts Responsibility - Activity in Athens.

Constantinople, Feb. 14.-A Greek war ship yesterday fired on a Turkish vessel conveying soldiers from Candia to Canea. As a result of Friday's occurrence, the ambassadors decided to recommend to their respective governments that the powers occupy Canea, Retimo and Candia for the purpose of affording protection to the Mussulmans.

Canea, Crete, Feb. 14.-The Christians occupied the heights surrounding the town this morning and began to bombard Canea. As soon as the firing commenced, Prince Georgi Berovitch, governor of Crete, with thirty recently enrolled Montenegra gen d'armes, boarded the Russian man-of-war. The Greek consul also barked on board another vessel. The Turks from the fortress replied to the fire of the Christians. It is reported that the fighting was attended with bloodshed. The military governor has been removed from his post. The foreign consuls also en barked on board the various vessels lying off the town of Canea. The Greek consul at Heraklion went on board the Greek warship Nauarchos Miaulis. The Christians at Heraklion are also hurrying on board the ships.

Fighting occurred around Halepa Saturday. After a brisk fusillade, the Turks routed the Christians and occupied the Akrotiri hills. The French consul was obliged to quit his country house at Haleps and return to his official residence at Canea. Troops Sent to Thessaly. Athens, Feb. 14.-Prince Nicholas started for Larissa, Thessaly, with the Third artillery regiment. It is stated that the British admiral com-

A steamer arrived at the Island of Syra last night with 1,500 refugees, who left Can-dia on the advice of the commander of the Greek warship and the foreign there.

A Serious Step.

It is evident the Grecian government has taken a serious step in sending troops to Crete for the purpose of protecting the Christians. A force consisting of a regient of infantry, battery and artillery embarked at Piracus yesterday on board three steamers. There was a scene of great en-thusiasm before the departure of the troops. Crown Prince Constantine, the Duke of Sparta, reviewed the men and, addressing them, said: "Officers and men, remember where you are going, and that you are Hellenes."

The troops then marched past in the and an immense crowd. The crown prince, with his staff, was at the head of the men, and conducted them to the railway station at Athens, en route for the port of Piracus, the populace meanwhile cheering for Crete, the army and the royal family.

Similar scenes of enthusiasm were also witnessed during the embarkation of the coldlers. The arrival of transports has already been reported from the Island of Milo. The troops continued on their voyage immediately, and it was expected they would reach Canea to-day. It is rumored they will virtually occupy the island with-out detay. All of the Grecian newspapers hall the departure of the troops with expressions of delight. There is much activ ity at the palace. King George personally directs affairs connected with the crisis.

London Times Warns Greece.

London, Feb. 15.—The Times in an editorial warns Greece to the effect that that country must not think that it can count on the support of the powers to wage war. With her limited ability, her dependence upon the powers makes it necessary for her to follow their advice and avoid provoking a conflict that she is incapable of sustaining alone. Had the Greek troops made a descent upon Canea, the Timey thinks, it might have been impossible to prevent war. As it is, the decision of typowers to accept responsibility, by the occupation of Canea, Retimo and Her ilon, should induce Greece to countern her military expedition.
